

Marc D. Ganz
International Tax Principal, NESA Inbound Tax Leader
& Global Telecom Tax Sector Leader

Marc D. Ganz, J.D., LL.M. is the Inbound Tax Leader for Ernst & Young's Northeast subarea. He joined the firm in October 1999. He formally served as a Senior Manager with Ernst & Young's U.S. Tax Desk in London from October 1999 through February 2003.

Marc specializes in advising clients in international taxation where he services a wide range of multinational companies. Marc has authored a number of articles for tax and business publications including a Tax Management Portfolio titled 946 TM U.S. International Taxation of Telecom Companies. He is also a regular speaker on various international tax topics.

He obtained his LL.M. in Taxation from New York University and his Juris Doctorate and Advanced Certificate in International Affairs from Washington University.

Prior to joining Ernst & Young, Marc worked as an associate in a New York law firm and served as a law clerk to the Honorable William M. Fay, a Senior Judge on the United States Tax Court in Washington, D.C.