

Scott Mozarsky
Executive Vice President, Commercial Operations
PR Newswire
scott.mozarsky@prnewswire.com

Scott Mozarsky has worked in the UBM Group since June 2000. In his current position as EVP- Commercial Operations, Scott oversees PR Newswire's commercial activities worldwide, spearheading the company's efforts to meet the communications, marketing and investor relations needs of its customers. Scott and his team ensure that PR Newswire's services align with industry demand by identifying and integrating new tools and technologies that mesh with the company's core communications offerings and provide a platform for continued growth. As part of his role, Scott also leads PR Newswire's identification and evaluation of acquisitions and strategic partnerships worldwide. Previously, as Chief Strategy & Development Officer, Mozarsky was responsible for Strategy, Corporate Development and M&A for PR Newswire. In this role, Mozarsky identified, evaluated, negotiated, structured and completed mergers, acquisitions, joint ventures, investments and strategic alliances throughout the world. Mozarsky was also responsible for managing PRN's Vintage Filings, Small Business, Trade Show and PRN China Divisions as well as PRN's Legal Group.

Prior to assuming this role, Mozarsky was EVP and Chief Operating Officer of UBM LLC (formerly CMP), responsible for working with each of UBM's technology divisions (Everything Channel, TechInsights, TechWeb and Think Services) to achieve profitable growth. Mozarsky remains on the Board of Directors of TechWeb.

From 2002-2007, Mozarsky headed up global corporate development & M&A for United Business Media Limited's US based subsidiaries including UBM LLC (f/k/a CMP Media), PRNewswire, Commonwealth Business Media and CMP Media. Mozarsky has completed over 60 acquisitions and a number of divestitures for UBM Limited's subsidiaries (including PR Newswire) in Asia, Europe, Latin America and North America.

Prior to joining the UBM Group, Mozarsky spent eight years at two multinational law firms representing media, technology, telecommunications and manufacturing companies. Mozarsky, who speaks Japanese and lived in Japan, has advised numerous companies on business, financial and legal issues arising out of cross border transactions.

Mozarsky earned his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Williams College and his J.D. from Fordham Law School.