Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery and Cadbury Adams USA
Celebrate Grand Opening of New Parsippany Headquarters

Parsippany, N.J., June 17, 2005 – Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery and Cadbury Adams USA, leading contributors to confectionery and beverage leader Cadbury Schweppes, today officially celebrated the grand opening of their new headquarters. The move, which involved approximately 400 colleagues, was marked today by a grand opening celebration at the new headquarters located at Morris Corporate Center IV, 389 Interpace Parkway in Parsippany, N.J.

Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery and Cadbury Adams USA colleagues based in Parsippany support the development, manufacturing, marketing and sales of some of the best-loved confectionery brands in the Americas, including Trident®, Dentyne®, Halls®, Clorets, Bubblicious®, Swedish Fish®, Sour Patch®, Cadbury Dairy Milk®, Bubbalo® and Beldent® and Max Air®.

Virginia Bauer, Secretary, NJ Commerce & Economic Growth & Tourism Commission, Jack Schrier, Morris County Freeholder Director, and Mimi Letts, Mayor, Parsippany-Troy Hills, joined Trevor Bond, Acting President, Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery and Brad Irwin, President, Cadbury Adams USA, and other Cadbury Adams USA colleagues participated in a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the event. The celebration also included a proclamation from the New Jersey State Senate and House of Representatives of June 17 as “Cadbury Schweppes Day.”

“We are very excited about our new headquarters,” says Trevor Bond, Acting President, Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery. “The new office space promotes the innovation and collaborative spirit that drives our success, including sophisticated technologies and a stimulating, fun work environment. It also features our well-loved brands and spotlights our focus on the customer. I know our colleagues will thrive in our new environment as we work together to create brands people love.”

The new facility houses the headquarters of the Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery region, encompassing the confectionery business from Canada through Argentina. The Business Units within Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery are significant contributors to the overall success of Cadbury Schweppes. Additionally, Cadbury Adams USA LLC, the U.S. business unit of Cadbury Schweppes Americas Confectionery, is headquartered at this location.
