

*London Marriott Grosvenor Square Launches
Buckingham Palace Tour Packages for Summer 2006*

9th May, London.../This summer 2006 promises to have a regal air at The London Marriott Grosvenor Square. The hotel, which has just completed a £14 million, 2 year long refurbishment programme has launched a special package for guests to stay in Mayfair and discover the 19 State Rooms at Buckingham Palace.

Buckingham Palace state rooms are a wonderful London day trip. They are lavishly furnished with exquisite treasures, antiques and art works by world famous artists, tours are full of interest and intrigue. This summer is also the perfect opportunity to explore the Queen's 80th Birthday Celebration exhibition – exclusive for 2006.

After the tour, return to your own luxurious room at The London Marriott Grosvenor Square, full of luxuries that any King or Queen would expect in the heart of Mayfair!

The London Marriott Grosvenor Square Buckingham Palace Tour Package consists of a one-night stay in a deluxe room, inclusive of tickets to Buckingham Palace State Room tour; all for the royal price of £95 per person (based on double occupancy), exclusive of VAT. To book online visit www.marriott.co.uk/londt or call 020 7493 1232.

This package is available from 1st August 2006 – 30th September 2006. In August guests can book Monday – Sunday but during September it applies to weekends only.

For further press information, please contact Kathryn Peel or Emily Wilson at Grifco PR, 020 7385 7090 or e-mail Kathryn@grifcopr.com; emily@grifcopr.com